

GEOGRAPHY STEPS TO ACHIEVE

- I can identify and locate Tudor landmarks on a map of London.
- What are counties and why are they important medieval England?
- What are different maps used for?
- How are settlements formed?
- Where are Nile located and why it is so important?
- How can we be kind to the environment?
- How do ecosystems survive?
- Why are theme parks located nearer to cities?
- What are the effects of

Y5

- urbanisation on Windsor.
- How have significance events in history effected population?

- How many ports in the UK can you name?
- Can I find places around the world in an atlas using the index?
- What is the definition of a desert?

Y6

- What are Mexico's most important natural resources?
- Can you explain how The Grand Canyon was formed?

Y7

- What skill keys do geographers need?
- What is causing an ageing population and what impact will this have?
- What are the economic, human and environmental impacts of natural disasters?
- What are the different types of

- Volcanoes and how do they link to different plate boundaries?
- What would have happened if China didn't introduce the one child policy?
  - What are the pros and cons of the Three Gorges Dam?
  - Is the USA still considered the leading superpower or has this title been taken by China?

Y8

- Can you explain the formation of 5 river land formations & link them to the process of erosion and depositions?

- Can you describe the processes that occur within each stage of the water cycle.
- What are the causes, effects and responses to flooding?
- What are the key development indicators?
- What is the impact of tourism on Kenya?
- What impact does deforestation have on the biome of the rainforest?
- What are the impacts of deforestation and how would sustainable management benefit future generations?